- Reducing absence, including persistent and severe absence
- Ensuring every pupil has access to the full-time education to which they are entitled
- Acting early to address patterns of absence
- Building strong relationships with families to make sure pupils have the support in place to attend school

We will also promote and support punctuality in attending lessons.

2. Legislation and guidance

- This policy is based on the Department for Education's (DfE's) statutory guidance on working together to improve school attendance (applies from 19 August 2024) and school attendance parental responsibility measures. The attendance officer is Claire Antal and can be contacted via C.Antal@sjb.surrey.sch.uk

3.6 Class teachers/form tutors

Class teachers/form tutors are responsible for recording attendance for both morning and afternoon sessions on a daily basis, using the correct codes (see Appendix 1), and submitting this information to the school office on the same day.

3.7 School office staff

School office staff will:

- Take calls from parents/carers about absence on a day-to-day basis and record it on the school system
- Transfer calls from parents/carers to the head of year/pastoral lead where appropriate, in order to provide them with more detailed support on attendance

3.8 Parents

Where this policy refers to a parent, it refers to the adult the school and/or local authority decides is most appropriate to work with, including:

- All natural parents, whether they are married or not
- All those who have parental responsibility for a child or young person
- Those who have day-to-day responsibility for the child (i.e. lives with and looks after them)

Parents are expected to:

- Make sure their child attends every day on time
- Call the school to report their child's absence before 08:50am on the day of the absence and each subsequent day of absence, and advise when they are expected to return
- Provide the school with more than 1 emergency contact number for their child
- Ensure that, where possible, appointments for their child are made outside of the school day
- Seek support, where necessary, for maintaining good attendance, by contacting their child's head of year who can be contacted via email.

3.9 Pupils

Pupils are expected to:

- Attend every day, on time.
- Attend every timetabled session on time.
- In 6th form, contact the 6th form manager to report their absence before 8.00am on the day of the absence and each subsequent day of absence.

4. Recording attendance

4.1 Attendance register

We will keep an electronic attendance register, and place all pupils onto this register.

We will take our attendance register at the start of the first session of each school day and once during the second session. It will mark, using the appropriate national attendance and absence codes from the School Attendance (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2024, whether every pupil is:

- Present
- Attending an approved off-site educational activity
- Absent
- Unable to attend due to exceptional circumstances

Any amendment to the attendance register will include:

- The original entry
- The amended entry
- The reason for the amendment

- The date on which the amendment was made
- The name and position of the person who made the amendment

See Appendix 1 for the DfE attendance codes.

We will also record:

- Whether the absence is authorised or not
- The nature of the activity, where a pupil is attending an approved educational activity
- The nature of circumstances, where a pupil is unable to attend due to exceptional circumstances

We will keep every entry on the attendance register for 6 years after the date on which the entry was made.

The school day starts at 08:50 and ends at 15:25. Pupils must arrive in school by 08:50 on each school day. The register for the first session will be taken at 08:50 and will be kept open until 09:15. The register for the second session will be taken at 13:45 and will be kept open until 14:35.

4.2 Unplanned absence

The pupil's parent must notify the school of the reason for the absence on the first day, and any subsequent days, of an unplanned absence by 08:50, or as soon as practically possible, by using the Arbor parent portal.

We will mark absence due to physical or mental illness as authorised, unless the school has a genuine concern about the authenticity of the illness.

Where the absence is longer than 5 days, or there are doubts about the authenticity of the illness, the school will ask for medical evidence, such as a doctor's note, prescription, appointment card or other appropriate form of evidence. We will not ask for medical evidence unnecessarily.

If the school is not satisfied about the authenticity of the illness, the absence will be recorded as unauthorised and parents will be notified of this in advance.

4.3 Planned absence

Attending a medical or dental appointment will be counted as authorised as long as the pupil's parent notifies the school in advance of the appointment. Parents should notify the school by emailing the school at attendance@sjb.surrey.sch.uk

However, we encourage parents to make medical and dental appointments out of school hours where possible. Where this is not possible, the pupil should be out of school for the minimum amount of time necessary.

The pupil's parent must also apply for other types of term-time absence as far in advance as possible of the requested absence. Go to section 5 to find out which term-time absences the school can authorise.

4.4 Lateness and punctuality

A pupil who arrives late:

- Before the register has closed will be marked as late, using the appropriate code
- After the register has closed will be marked as absent, using the appropriate code

A student in Year 7-11 who arrives late:

Before the register has closed will be marked as late, using the appropriate code.

After the register has closed will be marked as absent, using the appropriate code.

Students who arrive late to school will receive a same day break time detention with a member of the SLT as per the behaviour policy.

Students who arrive late to a lesson will receive a negative comment, which will be recorded on Arbor for parents to view as per the behaviour policy.

Lesson truancy: Students who truant lessons will receive a Head of Year detention, in this case parents will be contacted by their HOY.

A student in 6th for who arrives late:

Before the register has closed will be marked as late, using the appropriate code.

After the register has closed will be marked as absent, using the appropriate code.

Being on time to form is compulsory – any student who is late twice in a week will get 30 mins after school on a Thursday in line with the behaviour points below (if a student arrives so late that it is deemed they have missed most of the form time, this can be counted as missed form time and the 6th form manager should be notified by the tutor to assign the detention) – names to be provided by the office from the lates book each day by SLT.

4.5 Following up unexplained absence

Where any pupil we expect to attend school does not attend, or stops attending, without reason, the school will:

- Call the pupil's parent on the morning of the first day of unexplained absence to ascertain the reason. If the school cannot reach any of the pupil's emergency contacts, the school may contact police and or children's services where appropriate after discussion with the schools DSL or DDSL in their absence.
- Identify whether the absence is approved or not
- Identify the correct attendance code to use and input it as soon as the reason for absence is ascertained – this will be no later than 5 working days after the session(s) for which the pupil was absent
- Call the parent on each day that the absence continues without explanation, to make sure proper safeguarding action is taken where necessary. If absence continues, the school will consider involving an education welfare officer
- Where relevant, report the unexplained absence to the pupil's youth offending team officer
- Where appropriate, offer support to the pupil and/or their parents to improve attendance
- Identify whether the pupil needs support from wider partners, as quickly as possible, and make the necessary referrals
- Where support is not appropriate, not successful, or not engaged with: issue a notice to improve, penalty notice or other legal intervention (see section 5.2 below), as appropriate

4.6 Reporting to parents

The school will regularly inform parents (see definition of 'parent', as used in this policy, in section 3.7 above) about their child's attendance and absence levels via regular monitoring reports throughout the year. Where attendance becomes a concern, reporting of your child's attendance will be done so more frequently by the HOY/Pastoral Support Manager.

5. Authorised and unauthorised absence

5.1 Approval for term-time absence

The headteacher will allow pupils to be absent from the school site for certain educational activities, or to attend other schools or settings.

The headteacher will only grant a leave of absence to a pupil during term time if the request meets the specific circumstances set out in the 2024 school attendance regulations. These circumstances are:

- Taking part in a regulated performance, or regulated employment abroad
- Attending an interview
- Study leave
- A temporary, time-limited part-time timetable
- Exceptional circumstances

A leave of absence is granted at the headteacher's discretion, including the length of time the pupil is authorised to be absent for.

Leave of absence will not be granted for a pupil to take part in protest activity during school hours. As a leave of absence will only be granted in exceptional circumstances, it is unlikely a leave of absence will be granted for the purposes of a family holiday.

The school considers each application for term-time absence individually, taking into account the specific facts, circumstances and relevant background context behind the request.

Any request should be submitted as soon as it is anticipated and, where possible, at least 6 weeks before the absence, and in accordance with any leave of absence request form, accessible via this link. The headteacher may require evidence to support any request for leave of absence. If a pupil is over compulsory school age (e.g. sixth form), leave can be requested or agreed by the pupil or a parent they normally live with.

Other valid reasons for authorised absence include (but are not limited to):

- Illness (including mental-health illness) and medical/dental appointments (see sections 4.2 and 4.3 for more detail)
- Religious observance – where the day is exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which the pupil's parent(s) belong(s). If necessary, the school will seek advice from the parent's religious body to confirm whether the day is set apart
- Parent(s) travelling for occupational purposes – this covers Roma, English and Welsh gypsies, Irish and Scottish travellers, showmen (fairground people) and circus people, bargees (occupational boat dwellers) and new travellers. Absence may be authorised only when a traveller family is known to be travelling for occupational purposes and has agreed this with the school, but it is not known whether the pupil is attending educational provision

- If the pupil is currently suspended or excluded from school (and no alternative provision has been made)

Other reasons the school may allow a pupil to be absent from the school site, which are not classified as absences, include (but are not limited to):

- Attending an offsite approved educational activity, sporting activity or visit or trip arranged by the school
- Attending another school at which the pupil is also registered (dual registration)
- Attending provision arranged by the local authority
- Attending work experience
- If there is any other unavoidable cause for the pupil not to attend school, such as disruption to travel caused by an emergency, a lack of access arrangements, or because the school premises are closed

5.2 Sanctions

Our school will make use of the full range of potential sanctions – including, but not limited to, those listed below – to tackle poor attendance. Decisions will be made on an individual, case-by-case basis.

Penalty notices

The headteacher (or someone authorised by them), local authority or the police can fine parents for the unauthorised absence of their child from school, where the child is of compulsory school age, by issuing a penalty notice.

If the school issues a penalty notice, it will check with the local authority before doing so, and send it a copy of any penalty notice issued.

Before issuing a penalty notice, the school will consider the individual case, including:

- Whether the national threshold for considering a penalty notice has been met (10 sessions of unauthorised absence in a rolling period of 10 school weeks)
- Whether a penalty notice is the best available tool to improve attendance for that pupil
- Whether further support, a notice to improve or another legal intervention would be a more appropriate solution
- Whether any obligations that the school has under the Equality Act 2010 make issuing a penalty notice inappropriate

A penalty notice may also be issued where parents allow their child to be present in a public place during school hours without reasonable justification, during the first 5 days of a suspension or exclusion (where the school has notified the parents that the pupil must not be present in a public place on that day).

Each parent who is liable for the pupil's offence(s) can be issued with a penalty notice, but this will usually only be the parent/parents who allowed the absence.

The payment must be made directly to the local authority, regardless of who issues the notice. If the payment has not been made after 28 days, the local authority can decide whether to prosecute or withdraw the notice.

- If issued with a first penalty notice, the parent must pay £80 within 21 days, or £160 within 28 days.
- If a second penalty notice is issued to the same parent in respect of the same pupil, the parent must pay £160 if paid within 28 days.
- A third penalty notice cannot be issued to the same parent in respect of the same child within 3 years of the date of the issue of the first penalty notice. In a case where the national threshold is met for a third time within those 3 years, alternative action will be taken instead.

Notices to improve

If the national threshold has been met and support is appropriate, but parents do not engage with offers of support, the school may offer a notice to improve to give parents a final chance to engage with support.

Notices to improve will be issued in line with processes set out in the local code of conduct for the local authority area in which the pupil attends school.

They will include:

- Details of the pupil's attendance record and of the offences
- The benefits of regular attendance and the duty of parents under section 7 of the Education Act 1996
- Details of the support provided so far
- Opportunities for further support, or to access previously provided support that was not engaged with
- A clear warning that a penalty notice may be issued if attendance doesn't improve within the improvement period, along with details of what sufficient improvement looks like, which will be decided on a case-by-case basis
- A clear timeframe of between 3 and 6 weeks for the improvement period
- The grounds on which a penalty notice may be issued before the end of the improvement period

6. Strategies for promoting attendance

To promote outstanding attendance across the school, students will be divided into 4 categories dependent upon their attendance.

The pastoral team will always analyse attendance and implement support within the context of the individual student and attendance will be monitored on a student-by-student basis. Student attendance will be regularly reviewed and movement between each of the 4 categories will take place on a half termly basis or more frequently where there are significant attendance concerns.

SJB reserve the right to take appropriate action outside of the below framework at any time, where flexibility to overcome or meet the student's individual needs are required.

Student-level absence data will be collected each term and published at national and local authority level through the DfE's school absence national statistics releases. The underlying school-level absence data is published alongside the national statistics. The school will compare attendance data to the national average and share this with the governing board.

Year 7-11

Students with attendance of 97%+ (Green)

Students whose attendance falls into this category will:

Be recognised and rewarded in a variety of formal and informal ways by HOY & form tutors.

100% club – Prize draw in year assemblies every fortnight for those with 100% attendance over the previous 2 weeks

Celebration Assemblies will take place every half term, celebrations of outstanding attendance will form an integral part of these assemblies.

100% Attendance email sent to parents every term.

Praise letters and postcards will be issued by HOYs on a half termly basis for those who have outstanding attendance.

Students with 100% attendance from the previous academic year will be issued with a 100% attendance badge and be able to skip the queue at break and lunch during the first term of the year.

Students with attendance of 93 – 96.9% (Blue)

Students whose attendance falls into this category will:

Be monitored by tutor over several weeks, ensuring that regular conversations are taking place with the students highlighting the importance of outstanding attendance.

Meet with their tutor during tutor time to discuss any patterns of absence.

Tutors may then make contact home with the parent/carers via email/phone call.

The HOY will regularly liaise with Tutor, & PSM to monitor attendance with regular “check-ins”.

Positive strategies used to support the student including the tutor to identify any barriers to attending school or patterns in absence and liaise with the HOY to identify any support measures which may be required to improve attendance.

Tutors and HOY to liaise with SENCO where this is appropriate and SEND have been identified.

Student attendance will be reviewed for move to Green or Amber group at the end of the half term by HOY & PSM

Students with attendance of 90.1 – 92.9% (Amber)

Students whose attendance falls into this category will:

Have their attendance monitored and reviewed on a fortnightly basis by the PSM.

HOY/ PSM to meet with parents of students whose attendance is of concern to discuss reasons for low attendance and agree on a positive approach to improve students' attendance.

As part of the parent meeting with the HOY/PSM there will be a review of any in-school issues which may be acting as a barrier towards an improvement in attendance and a discussion around how the student can be supported will take place. (e.g. absence from particular subjects, peer issues, support at home)

HOY & PSM to liaise with each other & Inclusion / safeguarding team if appropriate.

Positive strategies will be used to support the student in improving their attendance.

Recognition of drop of attendance below 93% communicated to parents via email.

Warning letter 1 is sent out to parents if attendance reaches 92% or below from Autumn half term 2 onwards.

Student attendance will be reviewed for a move to the Red or Blue group on a fortnightly basis between KS lead, HOY & PSM.

Students with attendance of 0 – 90% (Red)

Students whose attendance falls into this category will:

Have their attendance monitored daily. These students will form the first phone calls of the day for the PSM if the student is absent & no reason given to the main school office as part of the normal absence recording procedure.

PSM & HOY to create an Attendance Support Plan alongside SJB's Head of Inclusion if appropriate this will be shared with the parents and students at the earliest possible opportunity and their input will be requested.

HOY to communicate attendance concerns and support plans with staff through email/pastoral briefing.

From Autumn half term 2, if attendance falls below 90%, the student will be classed as a persistent absentee and the persistent absentee letter will be sent home.

Once the persistent absentee letter has been sent, if there is no improvement in attendance, letter 3 will be sent out if attendance reaches 85% or below.

Once warning letter 3 has been sent all future absences will be unauthorised unless medical evidence is provided to the HOY/PSM/school office.

SJB may exercise the right to make a formal referral to SCC Inclusion Services if no improvement seen after the school has exhausted all strategies.

If attendance does not improve, Parents/carers may be issued with a Penalty Notice and Surrey County Council may begin court proceedings where appropriate.

Student attendance will be reviewed for move to Amber group on a fortnightly basis between KS lead, HOY & PSM will take place

7. Supporting pupils who are absent or returning to school

7.1 Pupils absent due to complex barriers to attendance

The head of year will always work closely with families to identify and overcome any barriers to attending school. Where school attendance becomes a significant challenge for a student the head of inclusion will work alongside the family to support them in overcoming the challenges and consider an alternative approach to the students education.

7.2 Pupils absent due to mental or physical ill health or SEND

Where a pupil has an education health and care (EHC) plan and their attendance falls, or the school becomes aware of barriers to attendance that related to the pupil's needs, the school will inform the local authority.

7.3 Pupils returning to school after a lengthy or unavoidable period of absence.

Any students who have had a lengthy absence from school will be supported accordingly. The head of year will consult with parents to discuss the needs of the student upon their return and support the students in their reintegration. Where appropriate the student will be supported in a catch up plan for the learning they have missed. This will all be arranged by the students head of year.

8. Attendance monitoring

The Pastoral Support manager will review and monitor attendance regularly and work alongside the school lead for attendance. Heads of Year will also work closely alongside the PSM to monitor attendance regularly and identify patterns and respond in line with the actions noted in this policy.

8.1 Monitoring attendance

The school will monitor attendance and absence data (including punctuality) half-termly, termly and yearly across the school and at an individual pupil, year group and cohort level.

Specific pupil information will be shared with the DfE on request.

The school has granted the DfE access to its management information system so the data can be accessed regularly and securely. Data will be collected each term and published at national and local authority level through the DfE's school absence national statistics releases. The underlying school-level absence data is published alongside the national statistics. The school will benchmark its attendance data at whole school, year group and cohort level against local, regional, and national levels to identify areas of focus for improvement, and share this with the Trust board.

8.2 Analysing attendance

The school will:

- Analyse attendance and absence data regularly to identify pupils, groups or cohorts that need additional support with their attendance, and
- Identify pupils whose absences may be a cause for concern, especially those who demonstrate patterns of persistent or severe absence
- Conduct thorough analysis of half-termly, termly, and full-year data to identify patterns and trends
- Look at historic and emerging patterns of attendance and absence, and then develop strategies to address these patterns

8.3 Using data to improve attendance

The school will:

- Develop targeted actions to address patterns of absence (of all severities) of individual pupils, groups or cohorts that it has identified via data analysis
- Provide targeted support to the pupils it has identified whose absences may be a cause for concern, especially those who demonstrate patterns of persistent or severe absence, and their families (see section 8.4 below)
- Provide regular attendance reports to class teachers/form tutors, to facilitate discussions with pupils and families, and to the governing board and school leader
- s (including special educational needs co-ordinators, designated safeguarding leads and pupil premium leads)
- Use data to monitor and evaluate the impact of any interventions put in place in order to modify them and inform future strategies
- Share information and work collaboratively with other schools in the area, local authorities and other partners where a pupil's absence is at risk of becoming persistent or severe, including keeping them informed regarding specific pupils, where appropriate.

8.4 Reducing persistent and severe absence

Persistent absence is where a pupil misses 10% or more of school, and severe absence is where a pupil misses 50% or more of school. Reducing persistent and severe absence is central to the school's strategy for improving attendance.

The school will:

- Use attendance data to find patterns and trends of persistent and severe absence
- Consider potential safeguarding issues and, where suspected or present, address them in line with Keeping Children Safe in Education
- Hold regular meetings with the parents of pupils who the school (and/or local authority) considers to be vulnerable or at risk of persistent or severe absence, or who are persistently or severely absent, to:
 - Discuss attendance and engagement at school
 - Listen, and understand barriers to attendance
 - Explain the help that is available
 - Explain the potential consequences of, and sanctions for, persistent and severe absence
 - Review any existing actions or interventions

- Provide access to wider support services to remove the barriers to attendance, in conjunction with the local authority, where relevant
- Consider alternative support that could be put in place to remove any barriers to attendance and re-engage these pupils. In doing so, the school will sensitively consider some of the reasons for absence
- Implement sanctions, where necessary (see section 5.2, above)

9. Monitoring arrangements

This policy will be reviewed as guidance from the local authority and/or DfE is updated, and as a minimum yearly by Xavier Trust.
